9 Great Reasons East View is the first choice of worldwide Book Vendors

1. Unequaled Selection

East View's book specialists will help you source from over 250,000 titles, in languages from more than 38 countries. Choose from a subject list representing an ever expanding world of knowledge, news, science, military and political thought.

Some of our bestsellers are children's books, fiction and new atlases of the changing political geography.

2. Online Catalog with Amazingly Useful Search Tool

Our book catalog is at your service, 24/7 wherever you have an Internet connection. Built on our proprietary world class bibliographic database, you can power through a convenient 38-subject index or search by Title Author, ISBN, Language, Subject, Publisher, City of Publication, Country or Description. Search results deliver a catalog of titles that you may further sort by any column of information. This is an exceptionally powerful tool to support your customer service. ## 3. Great Customer Service from Minneapolis, Minnesota, USA

To get what you need when you need it, packaged in some custom way, delivered with special services or simply to assure your order is on its way, the customer service team in Minneapolis gives you their complete attention.

4. Custom Research from the Top Rated Book Professional Team in Moscow

For securing hard to find Grey Literature, rare or out-of-print titles, our team of book professionals should be your first call. Considered the best book professionals and scholars in the business, our search teams have helpful backgrounds in journalism, library science and a wide range of academic disciplines. ## 5. Bibliographically Accurate Database

Renowned Bibliographic Data

Recognized as a worldwide standard for book publishing in the Russian Federation, this database adds value to all our services. Bibliographically accurate data drives the online book search you can use to find titles in our catalog. It allows us to ensure the SHELF-READY books and MARC records we offer meet your highest standards.

6. Approval Plans and Blanket Orders – with Free U.S. MARC Records

Approval plans make it exceptionally easy for libraries to meet their acquisition goals from our bookseller partners. Another value we add for our partners are East View's highly regarded MARC records – at no additional cost.

7. References From the World's Largest Booksellers

No matter the size of your operation, you can work with confidence with East View and know you are in good company. We are primary Russian language suppliers to some of the largest libraries and book vendors in the world. Contact us directly for our most current list of references.

8. Discounts

You don't have to be one of our large volume customers to start earning discounts. Every bookseller we work with receives a substantial discount. Approval plan customers are rewarded with the most substantial discounts.

9. It's Easy to Establish an Account

You will find our attentive, knowledgeable, book department customer support easy to reach. We will help you open an account that is right for the way you sell books.

East View Information Services

A reliable supplier supporting booksellers.

Our business started in Moscow in 1989, providing newly available information from Russia and the newly independent states. Broadly accepted by governments, militaries and academics around the world, East View quickly ramped up service quality to assure their position as a reliable information provider.

Soon after, East View built a Russian book service that supports libraries around the world, a highly skilled technical operation that produces world class information databases, a microform production facilities that is saving massive historical collections for researchers, and a periodicals network that delivers thousand of volumes daily from all across Eurasia,

Today, East View, headquartered in Minneapolis, USA, has major service facilities in Russia, and Ukraine with more than 120 employees to serve our customers.
