WARSAW PACT JOURNAL (1970–1990)

(Информационный сборник Штаба Объединенных вооруженных сил государств-участников Варшавского договора, Information Herald of the Staff of the Unified Armed Forces of the Warsaw Pact Member-States)

Throughout its existence this publication played a major role in coordinating military doctrine, strategy and operational art among the Warsaw Pact members. It was virtually the only publication in which officers from all Pact countries actively contributed analyses.

ZNAMIA (FROM 1931)

(Знамя, Banner)

As one of the prestigious "thick journals" of the USSR and Russia, Znamia has been a pivotal venue for showcasing the works of preeminent authors such as Anna Akhmatova, Alexander Tvardovsky, Yevgeny Yevtushenko, Konstantin Paustovsky, Yuri Kazakov, and Yuri Trifonov. During perestroika, Znamia evolved into one of Russia's most widely-read and respected literary journals.

NEW! ZVEZDA (FROM 1924)

(Звезда, The Star)

As one of the prestigious "thick journals" of the USSR and Russia, Zvezda has been a key resource of Russian intellectual and literary circles for over a century. The journal's longevity and resilience through tumultuous periods of Soviet history, including the Siege of Leningrad and Stalinist repression, make it an essential resource for understanding the complexities of Russian cultural development over the past century.

Historical Archive Collections

There is no reason to suppose that the authority with anything but displeasure on these acts of banditry. In fact, the measures taken by the Red Guard and the bandits, on the rare occasion on which they are caught, are Spartan in their severe simplicity. A well known shop here was broken into recently, the robbers were captured, the Red Guard called in, and the manager had the greatest difficulty in dissuading them from executing the offenders at the spot. They acceded to his wishes so far as to shoot the bandit who had been caught in the most frequented part - where they shot him out of hand. They also shot their own second in command who had organized the confusion to put on a lady's fur coat under the circumstances. But the bandits paid to the Red Guard and the manager.

"Now, the number of Abkhazians who embarked on this occasion for Turkey is estimated to be somewhat above 16,000. The Petition set down for 1,500 families remaining behind would, at the same time, give about 30,000 or 35,000. This, on the exactest information, is the real quota falling somewhat short of 30,000."

EAST VIEW ARCHIVE EDITIONS: BALKANS, SLAVIC & CAUCASUS E-BOOK COLLECTION

East View Archive Editions™ (formerly known as Cambridge Archive Editions) provides rich historical reference materials on political, territorial, and ethnic issues with the Balkan, Slavic & Caucasus E-Book Collection.

From the 16th century onward, Great Britain established consulates wherever possible. There were British officials throughout the Balkans, Caucasus, and other areas of Eastern Europe, all in an effort to further trade relations. The by-product was a steady stream of written information and observations on the national heritage and political developments of many countries, made at a local level. These reports were preserved as historically authentic documents in facsimile, as well as numerous maps.

Document-level citations and rich indexing has immeasurably enhanced the value and discoverability of the content in this collection.

The material is particularly rich for the study of boundary formation, claims and disputes, allowing users to easily find unique insight in maps, government documents, and more.

Collection titles include:

- Albania and Kosovo: Political and Ethnic Boundaries 1867–1946
- Armenia: Political and Ethnic Boundaries 1878–1958
- Bosnia, Croatia, Serbia: Historical Boundaries 1815–1945
- Caucasian Boundaries: Documents and Maps 1802–1946
- Ethnic Minorities in the Balkan States 1860–1971
- Greece: Ethnicity and Sovereignty 1820–1994
- Montenegro: Political and Ethnic Boundaries 1840–1920
- Oil Resources in Eastern Europe and the Caucasus 1885–1978
- Proceedings of the Caucasian Archaeological Commission 1866–1904
- Soviet Union: Political Reports 1917–1970

Demography/Statistics/Census

East View delivers the most comprehensive collection of censuses from Russia and other post-Soviet states, including the first and last census of the Russian Empire in 1897, the first Ukraine population census of 2001, the regional census of Crimea in 2001, the first census of the Russian Federation in 2002, and the most recent Russian census of 2020.

EAST VIEW GLOBAL CENSUS ARCHIVE

The East View Global Census Archive® (GCA) is an innovative program to collect official data and publications issued by the national census authorities of more than 200 countries, from the early 19th century to the present day. For this region, GCA offers a robust collection of census data, including:

- Official census publications for numerous countries, with coverage ranging from 1897 to present
- All-Russian Population Census 2002
- All-Russian Population Census 2010, GIS and publications (coming soon also in Excel-format tables)
- All-Russian Population Census 2020, including over 1,000 Excel-format tables
- Ukrainian Census 2001
- Crimea Regional (rayon-level) Census 2001
- Crimea Demography and Economy 2009
- Recent censuses from Armenia, Azerbaijan, Kyrgyzstan, and Tajikistan, including PDF-format publications and Excel-format tables
- Latvia 2011 Census and census GIS dataset
- Lithuania 2011 Census and census GIS dataset

GCA contains all available primary source and official census publications associated with a given census. Users can browse historical publications as full-image, full-text e-books, download tabular data in Excel format (for born-digital publications), and download GIS data (e.g., shape files of administrative boundaries) – all from a unified discovery interface.

Books for Slavic Studies

NEW! FROM WORDS TO WAR: UKRAINE IN THE RUSSIAN PRESS, 2014-2022

This book proceeds from a simple question – “What prompted the Russian-Ukrainian war?” The picture that emerges is that the invasion of Ukraine on February 24, 2022 was preceded not just by preparatory actions of the Russian military, but by years of propaganda and persuasion targeted at the Russian elite and ordinary citizens.

PUBLIC PROTECTION OR REPRESSION? RUSSIA'S ANTI-EXTREMISM LAW ENFORCEMENT

The SOVA Center for Information and Analysis presents evidence showing that Russia's evolving anti-extremism laws are far from safeguarding citizens from hate crimes. This legislation harbors a not-so-hidden agenda: silencing dissent.

BLACK GARDEN AFLAME: THE NAGORNO-KARABAKH CONFLICT IN THE SOVIET AND RUSSIAN PRESS

Pulled from a vast repository of Russian-language press curated by East View and carefully translated into English on the Nagorno-Karabakh conflict through the lens of Moscow, along with some insight into its complex historical, political and ethnic underpinnings.

RUSSIA AND THE MIDDLE EAST

A collection of articles and essays paints an intriguing portrait of Russia's Middle East vision and how it has developed over the last two decades. Carefully selected by Fyodor Lukyanov, editor-in-chief of the acclaimed journal Russia in Global Affairs, many pieces are by officials who had a direct part in crafting Russian policy in this dynamic region: from the late Yevgeny Primakov; to longtime Foreign Minister Sergei Lavrov, UN adviser Vladimir Orlov, and Energy Minister Aleksandr Novak.

RUSSIANS ON TRUMP: PRESS COVERAGE AND COMMENTARY

Russians on Trump gives you the perspective of the Russians themselves. News, analysis and commentary about Donald Trump, drawn directly from the Russian press – before 2016, during the election campaign, and after his 2016 presidential win – fill crucial gaps in the knowledge of what the Trump-Russia relationship means to both sides.

WAR IN SYRIA

Fills a unique niche in political and military studies by presenting key events in the Syrian civil war – the deadliest conflict of the last 15 years – from a perspective that differs markedly from Western reportage.

ELITE WARRIORS

The Centre for Analysis of Strategies and Technologies (CAST), a Moscow-based think tank focused on military and security issues, present a collection of essays by leading military and security analysts. This book offers a detailed assessment of the organization and capabilities of a selection of special operations forces from around the world.

BROTHERS ARMED: MILITARY ASPECTS OF THE CRISIS IN UKRAINE (SECOND EDITION)

Provides military context for and unprecedented detail about the strategic confrontation between Russia and Ukraine leading to the annexation of Crimea and outbreak of conflict in eastern Ukraine, bringing greater balance and detail, more candor and increased objectivity to a subject fraught with confusion, misunderstanding, and historical animosities.

TERRAIN ANALYSIS OF UKRAINE

This unique publication delivers a descriptive and visual geographic knowledge base of Ukraine's population, roads, topography and soils, hydrology, vegetation and climate. Published in English for the first time, and supplemented with hundreds of full-color topographic and soil maps, this publication makes an abundance of detailed local geographic data accessible to a global audience.

STRATEGY

A translation of the second edition of Aleksandr Svechin's seminal work. Svechin (1878–1938) was an outstanding Russian military theoretician and widely recognized as the “Soviet Clausewitz.” This book, strongly influenced by the writings and analyses of the contemporary and classic European figures of Svechin's day, represents his concept of the best approach to national security for the Soviet state.

АРХИВ ВНЕШНЕЙ ПОЛИТИКИ РОССИЙСКОЙ ИМПЕРИИ [ARKHIV VNESHNEI POLITIKI ROSSIISKOI IMPERII]

A guidebook to the archives of tsarist Russia's Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Opens the files on the documents, letters and communiqués driving Russia's foreign policy from the late 16th century through 1917. A reference to over 500,000 documents in about 400 record groups, primarily encompassing the years 1720 to 1917, with some documents dating from 1537. In Russian.

Scholarly Journals in English

East View Press journals focus on the regions of Russia and the CIS, East Asia and the Asia Pacific, and cover a broad range of topics including politics, foreign relations, economics, military affairs, history, literature, culture, and archaeology. THE CURRENT DIGEST OF THE RUSSIAN PRESS: A WEEKLY SELECTION OF TRANSLATED ARTICLES FROM MAJOR RUSSIAN NEWSPAPERS

Published since 1949, this leading publication in the field of Soviet/Russian area studies presents a weekly selection of Russian-language press materials, carefully translated into English. Intended for use in teaching and research, the translations are thus presented as documentary materials without elaboration or commentary, and state the opinions and views of the original authors, not the publishers of the journal. Published weekly; ISSN 2159-3612 (print), ISSN 2159-3639 (online). For access to content from 1949, East View also offers The Current Digest of the Russian Press Digital Archive (see page 4).

INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS: A RUSSIAN JOURNAL OF WORLD POLITICS, DIPLOMACY AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

This internationally circulated journal, now in its 70th year of publication, is the English translation of the Russian-language journal Mezhdunarodnaya zhizn, which is published by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Russian Federation. The editorial board of the source journal is traditionally headed by the Russian foreign minister, while contributors are primarily high-ranking diplomats and leading Russian international relations experts and scholars. As such, International Affairs is a vital primary source for anyone interested in studying and analyzing Russia's foreign policy, worldview, and approaches to security and international development. Published bimonthly; ISSN 0130-9641 (print), ISSN 1938-2588 (online). For access to content from 1954, East View also offers the International Affairs digital archive (see page 6).

FAR EASTERN AFFAIRS: A RUSSIAN JOURNAL ON CHINA, JAPAN, AND ASIA-PACIFIC REGION

Far Eastern Affairs is a quarterly peer-reviewed journal of the Russian Academy of Sciences' Institute for China and Contemporary Asia (formerly known as the Institute for Far Eastern Studies). The journal presents Russian approaches toward China, Japan, and other emerging powerhouses of the Asian/Pacific rim. Published quarterly; ISSN 0206-149X (print), ISSN 1947-2641 (online). For access to historical content from 1974, East View also offers the Far Eastern Affairs digital archive (see page 6).

DIGITIZATION SERVICES

It's in the DNA of libraries to provide their researchers with the best and most extensive access to information, but the nature of print or microform collections limits access to researchers unable to visit the library during open hours.

Digitizing these unique collections helps libraries connect those resources with their researchers and researchers to your resources.

Partner with East View to convert materials currently in hard-to-use (microform) or deteriorating physical formats into digital resources accessible from any authenticated location 24/7.

We offer a full range of services for digital conversion and hosting, including:

- Digitization and OCRing
- Sourcing materials to complete collections
- Custom metadata creation
- Rights diligence
- Project management
- Development of Open Access or Hybrid Open Access products
- Archival preservation

HOSTING FOR LONG-TERM ONLINE ACCESS

When you work with East View to digitize your collections you are getting so much more than just scanning services. We can handle the entire digitization, conversion and hosting process, consulting with you every step of the way to make sure the end product is customized to suit the exact needs of your collection.

Have a collection with both simplified and Traditional Chinese characters? Working with Church Slavonic? East View has the expertise to create the best solution for your needs.

East View has over 30 years' experience working with area studies materials. We understand the challenges that come with working with non-Roman scripts, we know which platforms work best for different languages, and we can help you navigate the options to create a resource that meets your goals for scholarship and your collection. This is expertise that not many other outfits can match.

Contact us at info@eastview.com to get started with a free consultation or learn more: eastview.com/digitization-services.

About East View

For over 35 years, East View has been providing high-quality information products and services in foreign languages and in English to a wide array of academic, commercial, and government customers throughout the world.

We started out small, back when the Cold War was ending and real and figurative walls were crumbling down. Information that had previously been secret was now declassified, and we sought ways to make this generally available to the world. We obtained the rights and started down the path of becoming a provider of Slavic resources.

Thus East View was born, providing a glimpse of happenings in the East for those in the West.

As the USSR continued to disintegrate, East View became a reliable source for all things Russian for governments, international companies, librarians, researchers, and analysts.

We strive to become your supplier of choice by offering more choices from Eastern Europe than any other company. Our suite of offerings include books from far flung regions, periodicals in print or online, research collections in any format, Universal Database online collections, and more. We also collaborate with other organizations to create resources like the Imperial Russian Newspapers Open Access collection, made possible thanks to the active support of the National Library of Russia and through the generous support of the Center for Research Libraries and its member institutions.

Whether you seek best-sellers from Moscow, the latest census data from Kazakhstan, fine arts content from Prague, or legal information from Russia, East View already has it or can procure it. East View is committed to sourcing uncommon information from extraordinary places. Our Slavic offerings continue traditions started over three decades ago.

We look forward to serving you.
