China Social Sciences Yearbooks

Social sciences almanacs and yearbooks from premier Chinese academic publisher

China Social Sciences Yearbooks is produced by China Social Sciences Press (CSSP), a key publishing arm of the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences (CASS). CSSP and institutions at CASS have been producing social-science almanacs and yearbooks for decades. These are now collected in one place on a stable platform: China Social Sciences Yearbooks. Spanning 1933 to present, the database contains yearbooks for archaeology, linguistics, journalism, population, economics, borderland studies, literature, philosophy, and many other fields. Many of these titles are available across many years, facilitating longitudinal research. The Almanac of Archaeology in China, for example, has been published since 1984. China Social Science Yearbooks is fundamental resource for research on Chinese intellectual history, CCP ideology, historiography, academia, media, social sciences, or the evolution of official terminology.
