Archive of the Mao Era

Archive of the Mao Era represents the most ambitious extant effort in North America to digitize Mao-era materials that have made their way into research libraries and private collections, often without any knowledge of librarians or researchers.

The 2026 Offer

The 2026 offer contains 165 publications and over 17,000 pages of content.

- Date coverage: 1949-1976
- Content types: Party publications, ethnic minority surveys, government documents, military reports, propaganda publications, posters, statistical reports, scientific research, conference proceedings

East View will continue to digitize these works on an annual basis according to demand and continued support by academic libraries.

Representative titles from the Archive of the Mao Era collection include:

- 第一屆全國出版會議紀念刊 (Commemorative Publication of the First National Publishing Conference, 1950)
- 抗美援朝戰傷處理文集 (Anthology of Treatment of War Injuries to Resist U.S. Aggression and Aid Korea, 1952)
- 中华人民共和国科学技术协会第一次全国代表大会彙刊 (Proceedings of the First National Congress of the China Association for Science and Technology, 1958)
- 偉大祖國的忠實兒女 全國青年社会主义建設積極分子簡要事蹟 (Loyal Sons and Daughters of Our Great Motherland: Brief Deeds of National Youth Activists in Socialist Construction, 1955)
