

ChinaLawInfo

An extensive collection of Chinese law and legal information

ChinaLawInfo is a comprehensive online resource offering access to Chinese law from the central to local levels, starting from 1949. Laws and regulations, judicial cases, court judgments, treaties, foreign and international laws, arbitration awards, interpretations, commentaries, and more are brought together in this powerful database. Special sections deal with tax law, World Trade Organization treaties, and other areas of specialized interest, while the “Annotated Chinese Laws” section helps users understand the context and meaning of more than 100 Chinese laws, annotated article by article. Related laws, regulations, cases, and law review articles are hyperlinked together, to give further context to users.
