El Espectador Digital Archive

Colombia's oldest newspaper

As Colombia's oldest newspaper, El Espectador has served as an eyewitness to Colombia and Latin America's most defining epochs. Through its pages, scholars can trace the history of the Thousand Days' War and the secession of Panama, the beginning of La Violencia following the 1948 Bogotazo, and the ideological struggles of the Cold War as they played out across the region.

The El Espectador Digital Archive is an indispensable resource for students and faculty in history, Latin American studies, and political science. By unlocking over a century of bold investigative reporting, political analysis, and cultural commentary (including the early journalism of Nobel laureate Gabriel García Márquez), the El Espectador Digital Archive equips researchers with a foundational tool for understanding the complex trajectory of modern Latin American history.

Key Stats

- Archive: 1887-2025
- Language: Spanish
- Frequency: Daily
- City: Bogota
- Country: Colombia
- Format: PDF, page-based
- Producer: East View Information Services
- Platform: East View Global Press Archive

About the Archive

The El Espectador Digital Archive is a valuable resource for scholars of history and Latin American studies. The archive contains all obtainable published issues from 1887 on, with an additional year's worth of content available for purchase on an annual basis. The archive features full page-level digitization, complete original graphics, and searchable text.

The El Espectador Digital Archive is a part of the East View Global Press Archive®, which is the result of a landmark initiative of Stanford Libraries and the Hoover Institution Library & Archives to digitally preserve and make more accessible thousands of original print newspaper publications collected by the Hoover Institution and now housed by Stanford Libraries.

For more information or trial access, please contact info@eastview.com or visit https://www.eastview.com/request-trial

El Espectador Digital Archive – https://www.eastview.com/resources/gpa/el-espectador/ – October 8th, 2026 6:57 am UTC. Product information subject to change without notice. Please refer to eastview.com or contact your East View representative for the most current information.