Published in Kyiv from 1990-2009, Narodna hazeta (Народна газета, People's Newspaper) was a continuation of the short-lived Rukh (1989-1990), with the motto "For the unity of national-democratic forces." This Ukrainian-language publication was pro-independence, anti-communist, and provided detailed coverage of the lead-up to the first democratic elections held in the Ukrainian SSR. It ceased publication in 2009 due to bankruptcy.
