

Eksport Vooruzhenii Digital Archive

Authoritative Russian journal on the global arms industry

Published since 1997 by the Centre for Analysis of Strategies and Technologies, Eksport Vooruzhenii (Arms Exports) is one of the most authoritative and most important scholarly publications in Russia covering issues related to the global production and trade of military goods and armaments.

Published bimonthly, the journal has distinguished itself as a provider of insightful and balanced commentary on and analysis of the global arms market, becoming a platform for original research on broader industry dynamics, developments, and trends. Among other various topics, the journal devotes particular focus to the analysis of military-technical aspects of the defense industries of various countries, the viability of weapons systems in a constantly evolving global arms market in the context of emerging geopolitical challenges, and various cases (oftentimes unannounced) of defense-industrial cooperation between Russian and foreign companies.
