Taiwan Journals Search

A collection of Taiwan's most authoritative humanities and social sciences journals

Taiwan Journals Search (臺灣人社百刊) is a collection of scholarly humanities and social sciences journals, dating from 1972 to present, from Taiwan. This is the only full-text searchable database of its kind from Taiwan, with 75% of the content made up of core journals of Taiwan, as listed in TSSCI (Taiwan Social Sciences Citation Index), THCI Core (Taiwan Humanities Citation Index), and THCI (Humanities Citation Index). Most of the humanities journals found in the database are complete runs, from the first issue. With simple, clear interfaces in English, simplified Chinese, and traditional Chinese, the database is updated, with additional core journals added annually.

Taiwan Journals Search does not require any installation nor plug-ins. The PDF viewer is fixed in the interface and is easy to navigate.
