

Eastern Ukraine Newspaper Collection

Newspapers published under the authority of the Russian occupation

This database is a curated collection of 47 different newspapers, including single issues and flyers, published under the Russian occupation authority in the Donetsk People's Republic (DNR) and Luhansk People's Republic (LNR), along with other Ukrainian territories seized by Russian forces since the onset of hostilities on February 24, 2022.

Many of the titles within this collection are represented by only single issues or a limited number of editions, with a few extending to cover several years, showcasing the diverse and fragmented media landscape in these conflict-affected areas. As such, it is not intended to be a comprehensive digital archive of the 47 newspapers. Instead, it is an ephemera collection, consisting of selected issues that were available for acquisition.

For researchers studying the Russia-Ukraine war, this resource significantly enriches researchers' ability to conduct in-depth and nuanced studies of the conflict's effects on the local populace, shedding light on the changes in public opinion, media representation, and daily life within these contested regions. Researchers will find essential content that pieces together the narrative of the conflict by examining propaganda and media strategies and accessing otherwise scarce information due to the territories' unrecognized status and reporting difficulties.
