LATE QING AND REPUBLICAN-ERA CHINESE NEWSPAPERS — AN OPEN ACCESS COLLECTION

The first half of the twentieth century began with the demise of China’s last imperial dynasty, the Great Qing, and ended with the foundation of the People’s Republic of China in October 1949. Following the 1912 establishment of China’s first post-imperial government, the Republic of China, the country experienced both industrial and social revolution, a civil war during which communist and nationalist forces battled to shape the country’s future, and looming external threats during both world wars.

The Late Qing and Republican-Era Chinese Newspapers collection provides invaluable perspective on this critical period.

SOUTHEAST ASIAN NEWSPAPERS

Covering several countries from the region, including Myanmar (formerly Burma), Indonesia, Philippines, Thailand, and Vietnam, and featuring multiple languages such as Dutch, English, French, Javanese, Spanish, and Vietnamese, the Southeast Asian Newspapers collection incorporates a wealth of coverage and perspectives on major regional and global events of the late 19th and 20th centuries.

NEW GPA CRL ALLIANCE COLLECTION COMING SOON! SOUTH ASIAN NEWSPAPERS

SHEN BAO

The very first newspaper in China with a Chinese editorial staff, Shen Bao (historically transliterated as Shun Pao or Shen-pao) was established in 1872 in Shanghai and is regarded as the most influential and oldest commercial newspaper before the establishment of the People’s Republic. Known as the “encyclopedia of modern Chinese history,” Shen Bao documented the major political, military, cultural, economic and social events and news stories from the late Qing Dynasty to the Minguo Period (The Republic of China, 1911-1949).

RENMIN RIBAO

Renmin Ribao, known in English as The People’s Daily, is the official newspaper of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of China and the central newspaper of record for the modern Chinese state. Since its founding in 1946, Renmin Ribao has published the official policies and viewpoints of China’s central government and has been the voice of the upper echelons of power in the People’s Republic of China.

GUANGMING RIBAO

Guangming Ribao, launched on June 16, 1949, by the China Democratic League, originally represented the eight minority “democratic” parties in China. In more modern times, the paper joined the mainstream of party publications. Today, Guangming Ribao is an influential daily, specifically in the fields of science, technology, education, and culture, with readership amongst state agencies, universities, schools, the armed forces, and in intellectual circles. With correspondents resident in many countries worldwide, Guangming Ribao also reports on international news from a Chinese perspective.

Drawing on The Yomiuri Shimbun’s extensive news coverage network, The Japan News is an excellent source of both domestic and foreign news in various genres, including politics, economy and culture.

THE JAPAN TIMES

Since 1897, The Japan Times has reported daily in English on the people, places and goings-on in and beyond Japanese society. Launched when Japanese society was undergoing fundamental changes to social structures, economy, military, and foreign relations, The Japan Times offers a unique point of view on local, national and international news.

THE JAPAN TIMES OF THE 1860S

Two English-language newspapers in Japan have gone by the name of The Japan Times. This title was the first, published from September 1865 to June 1866, at the end of the Edo Period. Coverage includes articles from Ernest Satow, an influential British diplomat during the Meiji Restoration, diaries of Japanese delegates to Europe, notices from embassies in Japan, cargo manifests, passengers on incoming and outgoing ships, port calls by vessels of war, and more.

THE JAPAN ADVERTISER

The Japan Advertiser was a hub of news written by and for missionaries, diplomats, merchants and journalists who were based in Japan in the early half of the 20th century. Many of The Japan Advertiser’s reporters also worked as correspondents for American and British newspapers and wire services, enabling them to draw upon the networks of contacts they had built up covering stories in the West, China and other parts of East Asia. With content aimed at American and European residents, The Japan Advertiser did include columns focused on US and British news, but also a local focus with articles written by Japanese government officials, military officers, well-known individuals, and letters from readers.

THE JAPAN TIMES CURRENTS

Online access to The Japan Times at www.japantimes.co.jp is now available for subscription. Contact info@eastview.com for more details.

JAPAN CENSUS COLLECTIONS

When initially acquired, Japanese census data is stored in a complex database structure, with attribute descriptions in Japanese, limiting access to those with significant database management and programming experience. East View has simplified access, formatting the collection into an easy-to-use geodatabase which can be visualized using any GIS software as well as providing a comprehensive guide. Additionally, East View provides the original census documentation, allowing researchers to see first-hand how the data was gathered. East View offers the 1995 Census and 2015 Census. MAINICHI SHIMBUN “MAISAKU”
毎日新聞 DAILY NEWS

The Mainichi Shimbun (Daily News) is the oldest existing Japanese daily newspaper with a history spanning over 140 years. Dramatic and fundamental changes were taking place in Japan during the Meiji era (1868-1912) when reforms were implemented in education, economics, military, foreign relations, and politics. During these transformative years, two newspapers were established: the Tokyo Nichi Nichi Shimbun 東京日日新聞, in 1872, and the Osaka Nippo 大阪日報, in 1876. The two papers merged in 1911, and were placed under the Mainichi Shimbun masthead in 1943. Mainichi Shimbun continues to be one of the most important daily newspapers in Japan today.

THE RAFU SHIMPO
羅府新報 L.A. JAPANESE DAILY NEWS

The Rafu Shimpo is the preeminent Japanese American newspaper in the United States. The paper began in 1903 supporting the small but growing Japanese community in the Little Tokyo area of Los Angeles, California. By the 1940s it was the most widely circulated paper in the region and included a weekly English section for second generation Japanese Americans. The Rafu Shimpo rests squarely at the scholarly intersection of Japanese history and the Japanese-American émigré community, especially in California, with its unique coverage of news, community history, and announcements of births, marriages, and deaths. Scholars of Japanese history and émigré communities will find this to be a valuable source for research with full search capabilities. Media and literary scholars will appreciate the rich archival history of the paper, with full high-quality page images (including photos, graphics and advertisements) from every issue available.

The Cambridge Archive Editions (CAE) East & Southeast Asia Collection are rich historical reference materials on political, territorial, and ethnic issues, now available from East View in online format or in print.

From the 16th century onward, Great Britain established consulates wherever possible. In East and Southeast Asia, there were British officials in Beijing, Shanghai, Hong Kong, Singapore, Taiwan, Tokyo, and more, all in the effort to further trade relations. The by-product was a steady stream of written information and observations on the national heritage and political development of many countries, made at a local level. These reports were preserved as historically authentic documents in facsimile, as well as numerous maps. The material is particularly rich for the study of boundary formation, claims and disputes, allowing users to easily find unique insight in maps, government documents, and more.

Titles include the following sets from the CAE East & Southeast Asia Collection:

- China Political Reports 1911-1960: A collection of reports covering the rise of Communism in China and its effects over more than half a century.
- China Political Reports 1961-1970: This is the second part of an integrated series of political reports on China in the 20th century.
- Hong Kong Annual Administration Reports 1841-1941: A collection of administration and related reports covering the first 100 years of British rule in Hong Kong.
- Korea Political and Economic Reports 1882-1970: All available diplomatic reports regarding Korea from the British National Archives.
- Taiwan Political and Economic Reports 1861-1960: The complete series of British diplomatic reports for the island of Taiwan.
- Straits Settlements Annual Reports 1855-1941: A collection of documents from the British Government tracing the history and development of Malaysia and Singapore.
- Shanghai Political and Economic Reports 1842-1943: This collection of primary documents establishes a comprehensive series of dispatches, from Shanghai, 1842-1943.

DIGITIZATION SERVICES
It’s in the DNA of libraries to provide their researchers with the best and most extensive access to information, but the nature of print or microform collections limits access to researchers unable to visit the library during open hours.

Digitizing these unique collections helps libraries connect those resources with their researchers and researchers to your resources.

Partner with East View to convert materials currently in hard-to-use (microform) or deteriorating physical formats into digital resources accessible from any authenticated location 24/7.

At East View we understand that each project is unique. We offer a full range of services for digital conversion and hosting, including:

- Digitization and OCRing
- Sourcing materials to complete collections
- Custom metadata creation
- Rights diligence
- Project management
- Development of Open Access or Hybrid Open Access products
- Archival preservation
- Hosting for long-term online access

When you work with East View to digitize your collections you are getting so much more than just scanning services. We can handle the entire digitization, conversion and hosting process, consulting with you every step of the way to make sure the end product is customized to suit the exact needs of your collection.

Need to OCR Arabic? Have a collection with both simplified and traditional Chinese characters? Working with Church Slavonic? East View has the expertise to create the best solution for your needs.

What’s more, beyond commonly-collected language collections, East View has over 25 years’ experience working with area studies materials. We understand the challenges that come with working with non-Roman scripts, we know which platforms work best for different languages, and we can help you navigate the options to create a resource that meets your goals for scholarship and your collection. This is expertise that not many other outfits can match.

About East View

Since 1989, East View has been providing high-quality information products and services in foreign languages and in English to a wide array of academic, commercial, and government customers throughout the world.

For more than 15 years, East View has offered more online resources from East Asia than any other company in North America.

Additionally, East View has built its own product line focused primarily on China. The China Comprehensive Gazetteers is our most significant project in this area to date. We have also created an online repository of pishu (皮书) white papers from the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences, representing the best of contemporary Chinese scholarship in the social sciences from cultural to economic development. In 2019 East View partnered with the Center for Research Libraries to release an Open Access collection of late Qing Dynasty and Republican-era Chinese newspapers and in 2021, the Southeast Asian Newspapers, with more collections coming soon.

Whether you seek the latest census data, fine arts content, or legal information from China, business data from Hong Kong, or online newspapers from Japan, East View already has it or can procure it.

East View is committed to sourcing uncommon information from extraordinary places. Our expanded Asian offerings continue traditions started over three decades ago.
