

Essential Russian Classics

An e-book collection from East View

East View presents a new collection of e-books for Slavic literature students and researchers, Essential Russian Classics.

This collection includes almost 6,400 titles by 300+ famous Russian authors, thinkers and philosophers of the 19th-early 20th centuries who made notable contribution to the development of Russian literature, philosophy and culture.

The collection comprises the works of the world-renowned Russian playwrights, poets, essayists and historians, such as Chekhov, Pushkin, Lermontov, Mayakovsky, Bunin, Karamzin, as well as the less well-known in the West, but still prominent cultural icons of Russia, such as Averchenko, Belyi, Briusov, Fet, Giliarovsky, Gumilev, Leskov, Rozanov, Teffi, and dozens of others.

The collection is divided into four main genres:

- Classic Russian Fiction
- Classic Russian Non-Fiction
- Classic Russian Poetry
- Classic Russian Drama

Non-fiction is represented mostly in such genres as philosophy, history, biography, memoirs and travel journals. Contact info@eastview.com for a full list of titles in each section.

The resource can be accessed through East View's Universal Database (UDB) E-Book platform, allowing for filtering by genre and author, sorting by title, searching in Cyrillic and transliteration. Similar to other UDB products, this collection is being offered for perpetual access. The book format is "smart" PDF. Each title has been assigned a unique e-ISBN number. A free set of ePub files for each title is included with the purchase of the entire collection.

All texts have been thoroughly proofread. In some instances, the old spelling was replaced with new. Some publications have been digitized for the first time and are not available in electronic formats elsewhere.
