ARCHIVE EDITIONS: NEAR & MIDDLE EAST COLLECTION

The Archive Editions™ (formerly known as Cambridge Archive Editions) Near and Middle East Collection are rich historical reference materials on political, territorial, and ethnic issues, now available from East View in online format or in print.

Highlighting the national heritage and political development of many countries, the Archive Editions collections are unique historical reference materials on political, territorial, and ethnic issues from the 18th-20th centuries. They are researched from files available in the public domain including, but not exclusively, the National Archives of the UK.

The Archive Editions Near & Middle East Collection is an extensive library of resources on the modern political development of the Arabian Peninsula and the Persian Gulf. It reflects how Britain’s relationships with various Middle Eastern countries were unique, whether by resolving conflicts, engaging in war, or establishing treaties. British diplomats were allowed exclusive access to leading government officials and were in a position to influence policy to be favorable to the British Empire. As a result, the collection may also shed light on the politics of today.

HIGHLIGHTED TITLES

This 7-volume set presents a collection of documents from many British Government files. The set opens with the Shah newly restored to the throne, and closes in the aftermath of his attempted assassination by a member of his Imperial Guard. Edited to provide a chronological development of themes and a description of each document. This period of 1954-1956 is characterized by Iran’s robust responses to the major internal and external issues and crises which had beset the country in the immediate preceding years, in particular the repositioning of the oil industry as a state-sponsored entity which led to a dramatically improved economy, empowering Iran, especially in the context of relations with Britain, as well as western Europe and, to a lesser extent, the USA.

RECORDS OF THE KURDS: TERRITORY, REVOLT AND NATIONALISM, 1831-1979

Over 9,000 pages of government records on the recent history of the Kurdish people, tracing early insurgencies, inter-relations with neighboring tribes and other ethnic groups, while examining the territories pertaining to the Kurdish homeland.

All relevant documents which could be sourced from the records of the Government of India at the British Library, Foreign Office, War Office, India Office, Colonial Office and Cabinet at the National Archives relating to the themes of territory and the struggle for it, have been traced and included.

The digitized maps included as part of this set also provide illustrations of the changes to Kurdish populated territory, as well as those sections subject to alterations and contestation over the course of the 19th and 20th centuries.

COMING SOON! EGYPT AND THE RISE OF NATIONALISM

Captures an era spanning forty-year period, from the first appearance of nationalist sensibility in Egypt--including protests, journalistic agitprop, lobbying activities, sporadic violence--to an ordered political process, all through the context and perspective of Britain’s evolving policy regarding Egypt.

The book offers sheet-level detail for nearly 30 map series ranging in scale from 1:2,000 to 1:125,000, including details for known revisions and reprints. Each sheet entry includes information on known holdings of the map sheet.

The overwhelming majority of these maps are available in digital form and can easily be accessed online from the information included in the book.

The Bar-Ilan Indexing Project – Carried out by the Indexing Unit of the Wurzweiler Central Library, it consists of two parallel projects: 1) an index to articles in the literary supplements of the daily Hebrew press (1985–). Includes the supplements of Ha’aretz, Yedioth Aharonot, Ma’ariv, Ha’tsofeh, Yated Ne’eman, Ha’modia, Al-Hamishmar, Davar and Hadashot (the latter three — until they ceased publication); and 2) indexes to other Hebrew periodicals: Orlogin (1950–1957), Melila (1944–1956), Bar-Ilan (1965–1989) and Molad (1948–1986).

The Eretz Israel Database (EID) – A project of the University of Haifa Library in cooperation with the library of Yad Yitshak Ben Zvi, EID complements the IHP with additional material relating to the history, geography, and archaeology of the land of Israel.

The Tel-Hai Index to Hebrew Newspapers (THIHN) – A project of Tel-Hai College Library in Upper Galilee where indexing was produced and then input by the University of Haifa. Particular emphasis given to longer, analytical articles on social, economic, and political topics (including “op-ed” articles) as well as significant reviews of books, exhibitions, theater, and other cultural events.

The Index to Hebrew Periodicals Thesaurus – All four component files share the same common thesaurus of indexing terms. The Index to Hebrew Periodicals thesaurus is the largest and most comprehensive thesaurus of Hebrew indexing terms. It contains about 230,000 subject entries. Subjects are interrelated using the standard broad/narrow/related term relationships, as well as scope notes and synonyms. About East View

Since 1989, East View Information Services has been providing high quality information products and services in native and translated foreign languages to a wide variety of academic, commercial and government customers throughout the world.

Starting with print resources from Turkey, Iran, and Egypt, we have grown our online content from around the region. A few significant developments include:

• In 2014 Cambridge University Press and East View partnered to digitize the rich historical content found in the entire Cambridge Archive Editions collection.

• In 2016 East View partnered with Stanford University Libraries and the Hoover Institution Library & Archives to digitize over 25 million pages of rare newspapers from key regions of the globe. This effort led to the establishment of East View Global Press Archive®, Al-Ahram and Cumhuriyet Digital Archives, available from 2019 and 2020 respectively, are a part of this initiative.

• In 2019 East View formed an Alliance with the Center for Research Libraries (CRL) to digitize and make available 4.5 million pages of international newspaper content. This initiative, part of the East View Global Press Archive program, will deliver 1.5 million pages of content for all CRL member institutions and participating institutions. An additional 3 million pages will be available as Open Access, including the Middle Eastern and North African Newspapers collection.

• In 2021 Cambridge Archive Editions imprint, formerly published by Cambridge University Press, became a part of East View Information Services. The imprint is now called Archive Editions.

Whether you seek academic or popular books in e-book format, online access to current newspapers and press archives, or subscriptions to important journal titles from the Middle East, you can rely on East View. Our expanded Middle East offerings continue traditions started by East View over thirty years ago.

East View is committed to sourcing uncommon information from extraordinary places supported with exceptional service.

We look forward to serving you.
